Homecoming 1983

This Homecoming Dr. Tom Van Doren of the electrical engineering department, directed a Friday afternoon free seminar for alumni interested in knowing more about the features offered by various personal computers. Some 24 alumni and spouses attended the event. Assisting Van Doren to conduct the seminar were: Ken Carpenter (lecturing above), Paul Stigall and Hardy Pottinger, EE faculty.

This year 42 students holding Alumni Association Scholarships were invited to the semi-annual Board of Directors luncheon at Homecoming, and about half of them were able to attend. (Other recipients of association-sponsored student financial aid are invited to the same event in the spring.) Board members and their spouses enjoyed meeting and talking with the students.

Report of Association Board of Directors' Activities

Members of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association Board of Directors heard good news when they attended the semi-annual board meeting Oct. 21, in the Mark Twain Room of University Center-East.

One of the first items on the agenda was a report by Al Buescher ('64). He said that once again MSM-UMR alumni have responded to the needs of their alma mater. Donations to the annual fund during the fiscal year had increased by 20 percent over the previous year. (A complete report of the fund will appear in the February Honor Roll issue of the Alumnus).

Treasurer Jack Painter ('50) presented the association's financial status report and recommended additional appropriations of $7,000 for the current year to reflect increasing costs. The board approved supplemental funding for meetings, awards, equipment, address labeling, postage and a miscellaneous category.

Vice president Bob Wolf ('51) presented a proposed budget for student financial aid, recommending a 26 percent increase over the current 1983-84 year.

On The Cover

At Homecoming, alumnus board member Harold Crane, '53, of Hannibal, was telling us about the great job the 12 cheerleaders do at Miner football games and how much time they spend on practicing for each event. We thought we would show you an example of their spirit. That's Crane's daughter Kami (junior in civil engineering) on top of the pyramid. Other cheerleaders--left to right in descending order--are: Darla Birdsong, Colin Ohler, Janet Landers, Teri Coleman, Leticia Gonzalez, John Sullivan, Kim Molner, Mike Thompson and Kory Matthews. Cheerleaders Dave Thomas and Mario Columbo are hidden in the back of the formation.

MSM ALUMNUS (USPS-323-500)

Issued by-monthly in the interest of the graduates and former students of the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy and the University of Missouri-Rolla. Entered as second class matter October 27, 1926, at Post Office at Rolla, Missouri 65401-9990, under the Act of March 3, 1897.

The recommendation passed and a 1984-85 budget of $108,750 was approved for student financial aid. The higher amount reflects an increase in the number of scholarships awarded to students (the amount of each scholarship was increased by 27.7 percent at last year's meeting). Association scholarship guidelines were discussed and one amendment was made. Wolf was asked to make a further study of the early commitment scholarship category and present a report and recommendation for action at the spring meeting.

Reports on athletic studies, the Jackling Fund, Alumni Awards, Alumni Alliance, Industrial Relations, scholarship distribution and the Joint Engineering Council were made and discussed.

Chancellor Joseph Marchello joined the meeting and thanked the Board for the association's support and assistance. He described the procedure being used in the search for President Olson's successor, described present enrollment trends at UMR, shared projected enrollment estimates, and reported optimistically on legislative prospects for both capital and operating funds. He also reported the on-campus recognition ceremony held for Mrs. V.H. McNutt and dedication of the building site for the proposed Vachal McNutt Hall (mineral engineering building), and noted the subsequent death of Mrs. McNutt on Oct. 14th.

A motion was made and passed to express appreciation to Frank Mackaman for his continued loyal, productive service to the Association during the past 15 years and offer recognition that the association's growth is due in no minor part to his leadership.

A motion was also made and passed to adopt a resolution commending Chancellor Marchello for his leadership and administrative skill during a time of severe financial constraint for the University of Missouri system.

Bob Wolf, acting as secretary in Martha Gerig's ('69) absence, presented the results of the 1983 election of directors. Paula Bradley was elected as a director-at-large. Harold Crane, Bob Perry, Ken Pohlig and Bob Vansant were re-elected to their area directorships, and Dave Blume, Richard Hunt and Russ Kamper were elected as new directors in their areas (see Association Officers and Directors listing on page 39).

Announcement was made that the spring board meeting would be April 14, 1984 and the fall meeting would be Oct. 27, during the 1984 homecoming festivities.

Having completed the business of the association before noon, the officers and directors joined their spouses for luncheon with recipients of the Alumni scholarships.

Alumni Achievement Award

The Alumni Achievement Award is presented for outstanding service in areas of business or academic accomplishments and for civic affairs achievement or recognition.

John Lewis Andrews, '24
Retired Engineer, Inventor, Manager and College Professor.

Lewis Andrews began to collect patents during one of his early jobs at the Warner Co. Chicago, and in his work at Hotpoint, on automatic dishwasher timers and loaders and electric range switches, he picked up four more patents. During World War II, he worked for the Naval Ordnance Laboratory and after the war, spent four years with Airtex Co. of Fairfield, Ill. He then branched out on his own as a consultant and inventor, developing a rotary switch and circular pushbutton switch which earned two more patents. In 1949 he was called back to Hotpoint as manager of engineering and for the next ten years continued to add to his total of 17 patents.

The last seven years of his active professional life were spent as a consultant to General Electric and professor of mechanical engineering at the University of Mississippi.

Andrews and his wife, Mary, live about midway between the Little Black and Current Rivers in the southern Missouri town of Oxly in Ripley County.

Vernon G. Berkey, '50
Retired President, Midwestern Steel Division, Armco Inc.

Vernon Berkey received his B.S. degree in metallurgical engineering. He began working for Armco that same year as assistant metallurgist in the company's Baltimore Works. He was promoted several times until he became manager of the Baltimore operations in 1970.

In 1978 he moved to Middletown, Ohio, as vice president, resource operations, for Armco, then became president of the Midwestern Steel Division in Kansas City in 1980. He retired on Jan. 31 of this year.

Berkey is a member of the American Society for Metals, the American Institute of Metals, the American Iron & Steel Institute and the Association of Iron and Steel Engineers. He has served as a director for numerous Missouri and Kansas City civic and service organizations and was a member of the Commission on Modification of Activities for UM-Rolla.

A native of Somerset, Pa., Berkey and his wife, Joyce, now make their home at Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Victor J. Hoffmann, '60
President and Chairman of the Board, Industrial Mineral Products, Inc.

Victor J. Hoffmann received a B.S. degree in geology. He also earned M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from University of Arizona.

Hoffmann began his career with Union Carbide Corp. in research and development. He then spent two years in Southwest Africa on an exploration mission for a small group of investors.

In 1972, he established Industrial Mineral Products which began as a silica sand mining and processing company. Since then the company has developed other industrial minerals and strongly emphasizes research and development for utilization of waste products from industry. The company now operates seven subsidiaries, including Calspar Inc., Zenith Metals, Marter-White Inc., and Phoenix Resource Recovery Inc. Recently, a new division-Industrial Mineral Products Inc., Cebu, Philippines-was formed.

A native of Belleville, Ill., Hoffmann and his wife, Rosemary, now live at 31057 E. Lake Morton Drive, SE, Kent, Wash. They have a son, Christopher.

Alumni Merit Awards

The Alumni Merit Award is presented for outstanding service to UMR or the Alumni Association or for recognition of some outstanding achievement in academic or business pursuits.

James M. Forgotson, '20
Part Owner and Consultant, Gulf Coast Ventures and Gas Pipe Lines.

James M. Forgotson received a B.S. degree in mining engineering. He had begun his career in the oil business before coming to MSM, and after obtaining his degree he returned to the field in the Southwest United States. With the exception of two years of special work in geology (water development for Indian Affairs for the USGS), he has remained in the oil business all his life.

In 1961, he took over operations for Morris and Burk, which became Burk, Bakwin and Henry and even later Gulf Coast Ventures. He was also president of the Hydrocarbon Transfer Inc., Advance Transport Inc., and Bonus Transport Inc. pipe lines.

Forgotson has resigned as operator of BB&H and president of the Pipe Lines, but continues as part owner and consultant for them and two other organizations, Rosewood Transport Inc. and Southern Onshore Drilling Co.

Forgotson and his wife, Selma, live at 147 Jordan St., Shreveport, La.

Harold A. Krueger, '42
Vice President, Underground Mining, Kennecott Corp.

Harold A. Krueger received a B.S. degree in mining engineering, and was awarded the degree Engineer of Mines by this institution in 1959. He began his career with the St. Louis Smelting and Refining Co., Baxter Springs, Kan., then moved to National Lead Co.--now N.L. Industries--where he was instrumental in establishing one of the major producing cobalt-nickel facilities in the U.S. which operated between 1954 and 1961.

In 1964 he moved to Kennecott, and was promoted from assistant to the vice president of mining in New York to president and general manager of Ozark Lead Co. After designing, developing and constructing the Ozark Lead complex in southeast Missouri, between 1968 and 1982, he was promoted to his president position.

Krueger has 40 years of experience in underground mining and processing business, in designing nonferrous minerals facilities, emphasizing mine efficiency and utilizing technology and mechanization and beneficiation activities directed toward marginal mines' becoming economically viable.

Krueger and his wife, Sarah, live at 820 E. Three Fountains Drive, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Carlos H. Tiernon, '54
Executive Vice President International Metals and Machines and Chairman of the Board, Deister Co.

Carlos H. Tiernon received his B.S. degree in metallurgical engineering, and spent the first two years of his career in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

He joined Deister Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1956 as a field service engineer. In 1970 he became vice president of engineering for the company and president in 1978. He continued to serve as president until Jan. 1983, when he became chairman of the board of Deister and executive vice president of Deister's parent company, International Metals and Machines, IMM is a privately held conglomerate of 19 companies engaged in various manufacturing fields.

Tiernon is a member of a number of civic, service and professional organizations and is currently chairman-elect of the coal division of the Society of Mining Engineers of the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers.

He and his wife, Joan, live at 61 Berkshire Lane, Lincolnshire, Ill.

Alumni Service Awards

The Alumni Service Award is presented to individuals for outstanding contributions to UMR through service to UMR or to the Alumni Association.

Rex Alford, '40
Manager-Industry, Conservation and Environmental Affairs,
Oil and Gas Production, Conoco, Inc.

Rex Alford received his B.S. degree in mining engineering with a petroleum option, and the professional degree in petroleum engineering in 1974.

He began his career with Gulf Oil Co. in Venezuela and, with time out for service in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, spent 11 years with the company in South America where he became assistant production manager.

For the past 27½ years he has been with Conoco, most of the time on the staff of the vice president of production. He has held his present position for seven years.

Alford has been a loyal member of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association and has served in the past as a director and as a section officer.

He and his wife, June, live at 5743 Jason, Houston, Texas.

George W. Axmacher, '42
Area Manager, Sample Brothers Inc.

George W. Axmacher earned his B.S. degree in mining engineering--with a petroleum option.

After working briefly for the War Department as a junior engineer, he served in the U.S. Navy until his discharge in 1946. Since that time he has worked for the Key Co. in East St. Louis, Ill., Waukesha Sales and Service in Texas, Darling Value Co., Dallas, Texas, was a partner in Lietz Equipment Co. of Texas and New Mexico, and worked for the Murphy Co. in St. Louis.

For the past nine years Axmacher has been with Sample Bros. Inc., of Bethany, Okla. As area manager for Sample Bros., he works in the compression industry and industrial area of the oil patch.

He has been an active member and officer for several sections of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association and has been active in homecoming activities.

He and his wife, Norma, live at 3124 N.W. 54th St., Oklahoma City, Okla.

John Hall Livingston, '39
Retired Civil Engineer.

John Livingston received his B.S. degree in civil engineering. He spent the next 10 years as an officer in the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, earning an M.S. degree in civil engineering from Texas A&M University in 1948.

After a year as a civilian engineer, Livingston joined the U.S. Air Force and remained in that service until 1970. While in the Air Force he attended Louisiana State University and took an engineering management course at The Ohio State University.

For the next 10 years he served as a consultant and president of various corporations, retiring from such positions in 1980.

Livingston is a member of several professional, service and civic groups and has been an active member of the Ark-La-Tex section of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association as well as active in homecoming activities.

He and his wife, Eilyeen, live in Elm Grove, La.

Honorary Life Memberships

Miriam L. Planje

Miriam Planje is the wife of the late Theodore J. Planje, 1940 alumnus and a member of the faculty for more than 30 years.

During her husband's long association with MSM and UMR, Miriam developed a correspondingly close relationship to the school, its students and faculty.

Hers was the support that allowed her husband to give freely of his time and efforts to expand the influence of UMR through his activities with the American Ceramic Society, which he served as president in 1972-73, and his activities as a member of the national committee which keeps track of the reserves and plans for acquisition of strategic minerals. Miriam also accompanied her husband to many alumni section meetings throughout the country and to many professional meetings.

Since her husband's death in 1980, Miriam has continued to maintain ties with her husband's colleagues and their families and many students. She continues association with UMR through her membership in the UMR chapter of the Women's Auxiliary to the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers, and UMR Coterie, the faculty wives organization.

Joseph M. Marchello, UMR Chancellor

A native of Illinois, Chancellor Marchello is an alumnus of the University of Illinois and Carnegie-Mellon University.

A chemical engineer, he came to UMR in 1978 with an impressive academic background and experience in industry. At the University of Maryland he held responsibility as Provost, Division of Mathematical and Physical Sciences and Engineering.

During the five years he has been at the helm of this institution, Marchello has made an extraordinary effort to establish a personal rapport with many individual alumni, to provide inspiration and opportunities for alumni to express and demonstrate their support of this school, and to enhance the close relationships among alumni which seem to be a special feature of MSM-UMR.

In addition, he is dedicated to making sure that UMR continues to offer quality educational programs to highly qualified students and continues to maintain and enhance UMR's national and international reputation for producing qualified engineers and scientists. He has also demonstrated his appreciation of the arts and their contribution to education and campus life.

AMOCO "Outstanding Teaching Awards"

Don Askeland

Dr. Don Askeland, professor of metallurgical engineering at the University of Missouri-Rolla, believes that not all teaching takes place in the classroom, and his work habits reflect that idea.

Like many of his colleagues, he practices an open-door policy for students, and he spends a lot of time with them. "After all, students are the reason we are here," he said.

Besides, Askeland enjoys the students. "The interaction with students—getting to know them individually—is what I like most about my job," he said.

Students evidently appreciate Askeland's in-and out-of-classroom style of teaching. This year they voted him one of UMR's most outstanding teachers, and he is one of two faculty members who received AMOCO Foundation Outstanding Teaching Awards for the 1982-83 year.

He has been on the UMR faculty committee for National Merit Day (a special day for high school seniors who are high scorers on the National Merit Exam). For "five years or so" he taught in a summer science training institute for high school students. And, from 1976-81, he said that he "spent a lot of weekends in shopping centers" with UMR's traveling engineering exhibit.

Besides all that, Askeland has been adviser to the UMR student chapter of the American Foundrymen's Society for 12 years. When he has time, one of his favorite hobbies is another spinoff from his career—making metal sculptures.

David Oglesby

Although University of Missouri-Rolla faculty member David Oglesby has been a frequent recipient of outstanding teaching awards, he maintains, "I still can't say what I did to deserve them."

Dr. Oglesby, associate professor of engineering mechanics, has been chosen six times as an outstanding teacher. It was the third AMOCO award Oglesby has received.

Although he said that he has no specific teaching techniques, Oglesby does have definite ideas on what he considers important in teaching. These include such things as maintaining a learning atmosphere in which students feel free to question and participate; getting to know each student individually; respecting each student and his abilities; and being available to students whenever they need help.

"I really enjoy the students," he said. "Sometimes I think that working with them outside the classroom is the most important thing I do."

Oglesby teaches mechanics of materials, dynamics, and intermediate mechanics of materials, basic engineering courses required by most of the departments in the School of Engineering. As a result, Oglesby's classes are made up of a mix of students majoring in different fields.

Oglesby teaches mostly undergraduate courses. He is the primary freshman adviser for engineering mechanics majors and is the departmental graduate coordinator. He also serves as an adviser to Beta Sigma Psi fraternity and the UMR Rugby Club.

Alumni are invited to order prints of any of the homecoming photographs. Cost is $3 each for 8 x 10 prints or $2.50 each for 5 x 7 prints. To order: be sure to include page number and several words of the line of type closest to the photo you want, as well as a description of the photo itself. Orders will be collected until Jan. 31 and prints should be returned to you during February.

Ring Out The Victory..... Loveridge Restores a Tradition

Joel Loveridge, '39

Once again you can hear a bell ringing on the UMR campus.

The railroad bell in the cupola of the Rolla Building has allowed an old tradition to ring out anew over the UMR campus. The bell, which was a gift to UMR-Rolla from alumnus Joel F. Loveridge marks special occasions on campus such as athletic victories, Founders Day and commencement.

"I was director of operations for a cement company for several years," said Loveridge, who received a B.S. in civil engineering (1939) and the professional degree of civil engineer (1963) from UMR, "and I did quite a bit of business with the Norfolk and Western Railroad. About 15 years ago, the railroad saw fit to present the bell to me as a gift."

Loveridge had the bell polished and had the initials "UMR" engraved on it. "UMR means a lot to me," Loveridge said. "I enjoyed the years I spent there, and I feel a great deal of loyalty to the school."

"In fact," he added, "attending UMR is something of a family tradition. My father, my brother and my brother-in-law all attended UMR, and I thought it would be nice to have something representative of my family on campus."

Loveridge's gift has enabled UMR-Rolla to revive a tradition that was once an important part of campus life.

C. James Grimm, UMR professor emeritus of electrical engineering and recipient of a B.S. in electrical engineering (1930) from UMR-Rolla, recalls the original castiron bell in the Rolla Building being rung each morning at 8 to signal the start of the school day during the 1920's.

The bell also was used to announce football victories until Dean Curtis L. Wilson had it removed to ground level after an October 1946 game.

"Following a victory at Jackling Field, a group of enterprising students rushed to the Rolla Building," explained Dr. Jack B. Ridley, UMR associate professor of history and co-author of "UMR-Rolla: A History of MSM/UMR." "In their haste to get to the roof and ring the 'Liberty Bell,' the students broke open doors and windows.

"As a result," he continued, "Dean Wilson had the bell removed to ground level because he feared that someone would fall from the roof or that the extra weight of persons climbing on the roof would cause it to collapse."

For the next six years the bell would occupy a prominent place near the sidelines at Jackling Field. "In 1952," according to Sally White, writing in the Centennial Edition of the MSM-UMR "Alumnus" magazine, "some students let their enthusiasm get the better of them. While signaling the win by ringing the bell with sledgehammers, it cracked."

The following year the Frisco Railroad donated a locomotive bell to UMR's student chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers-Institute of Radio Engineers, which, in turn, presented it to UMR-Rolla.

That bell subsequently was mounted on one of Jackling Gymnasium's two towers, and it was first rung to celebrate a UMR victory following a 20-0 Homecoming win over Central Missouri State University on Oct. 12, 1953.

Jerry Berry, a 1949 recipient of a B.S. in civil engineering from UMR and a member of Miner football teams during the 1940s, remembers that the bell could be heard throughout Rolla following a victory. "I lived near downtown," he said, "and I could hear it ringing all the way from Jackling Gymnasium."

In fact, Berry added, he could hear the bell all through the night. "The fraternities used to assign their pledges the job of ringing the bell, and when one group would finish, another would take its place."

When Jackling Gymnasium was demolished in 1966 to make room for the Wilson Library, the bell was removed and placed in storage. Some time after that it disappeared and its whereabouts remain unknown.

Alaskan Alumni Meeting

An unofficial alumni meeting was held in Anchorage, Alaska on July 28 at the home of Mark Drumm, '77, somewhere in the near vicinity of the North Pole. The weather cooperated with one of the warmest summer days, 73°F, only two degrees below the record high. Attending were Kathy (Dill) Shelden, '79, Terry McCallister, '78, Joe Green, '55, Dave McCullough, '79, David Greco, '79, Doug Montgomery, '79, Tom Schmitt, '79, Steve Suellentrop, '74, John Knepler, '67, Andy Simon, '74, Delores (James) Hinkle, '75, Dan Hinkle, '73, Richard Beecher, '83, Mark Drumm, '77, and Lenn Koederitz, '68. Several wives were also present, although most notable were Kathy Shelden and Sheryl Massey (husband Sam) who came even though their husbands couldn't attend. Incredible edibles were provided by everyone and salmon of every type, prepared in every possible way, made the evening a rousing success until the keg ran dry.

Top Right: Mark Drumm (BS, Petr. Eng., '77) reports that all is well in Alaska. He recently caught a 55 lb. King Salmon in the Kenai River and would like to thank all of you who didn't come to Alaska to fish so that he could catch this one. Mark works for ARCO Alaska. ## Ark-La-Tex Section

William H. McCartney, graduate of the class of 1916, died August 17, 1983. Bill was the last living member of the famed MSM 1914 football team. With Bill as a halfback, this Miner team defeated the University of Missouri 19-0; Washington University 19-0; the University of Arkansas 40-0; the Kansas School of Mines 87-0; Drury 68-0; Pittsburg, Kansas Normal 104-0; Kirksville Osteopaths 150-0; and St. Louis University 63-0. Upon receiving his degree in mining engineering, Bill went to work for the Palmer Corporation, and later for William Barret Inc. in Shreveport, La. His funeral was held Aug. 19, with John Livingston, '39, and Ragan Ford, '23, among the pallbearers. Mrs. McCartney passed away the month before.

In other section news, the annual summer meeting was held at the home of John and Loretta Moscaris, '51, in Longview, Texas, on Aug. 13. Texas bar-b-que was served and plenty of liquid refreshment was on hand to satisfy even the thirstiest Miners. Those in attendance included: Mr. & Mrs. Frank Zvanut, '32, of Tyler, Texas; Rande and Judy Grotefendt, '73, Mark and Rose Herzog, '74, and the Moscaris, all from Longview, Texas; Mrs. Florence Flesh, widow of David J. Flesh, '23, Jefferson, Texas; Mr. & Mrs.

Tom English, '29, and Mr. & Mrs. Walt Mulyca, '65, from Marshall, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Kevil Croder, '28, and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Willis, '75, from Shreveport, La.; Mr. & Mrs. Basil Compton, '39, from Bossier City, La.; Mr. & Mrs. Ragan Ford, '23, of Minden, La.; Mr. & Mrs. John Livingston, '39, from Elm Grove, La.; and Mr. & Mrs. Gerald Roberts, '28, from El Dorado, Ark.

A special note of thanks to the generous hosts, John & Loretta Moscaris. The next quarterly meeting of the Ark-La-Tex Section will be held in November at the Officers' Club of Barksdale Air Force Base in Bossier City, La.

Los Angeles and San Diego Joint Section Meeting

The 1983 Midsummer Meeting of the Los Angeles and San Diego Chapters was held at the El Tigre Ranch near Ensenada Mexico.

The El Tigre Ranch looks better every year, hundreds of lime trees, 150 head of cattle, avacados, and acres of a new variety of tomatoes. Mix this with 33 adults and 11 children and throw in a horse and you have the ingredients for a very successful alumni meeting. The kids darn near wore the horse out.

It seems as if the chickens had worked all year to furnish the eggs for the "Ranch Breakfasts". Now add bacon and fresh rolls and bananas right off the stalk, then eat under the trees. There is no better way to get up in the morning.

For you runners, running a couple of miles along a quiet road in the moonlight under millions of stars is quite a thrill, but it is also a task to keep up with George Nations, '36.

A group dinner at a Mexican Restaurant on the beach on Friday, the Fiesta at the Ranch on Saturday and Pinata for the kids on Sunday rounds out the weekend. Is there a better way to have a meeting? Thanks again to our hosts Don and Pat Huseman, '43.

SEG Meeting - Las Vegas

Dave Peacock, '64, '66, '70, recently attended the 53rd Annual International Convention of the Society of Exploration Geophysicists in Las Vegas, Nevada. Dave works for Sohio Petroleum Company in San Francisco. He writes that there were many other alums at the convention including: Bob Brune, '69, and Roland Chen, '64, of Sohio, Dallas; Terry Donze, '71, Inter-north, Denver; Maurice Saffarrans, '66, Texaco, Oklahoma City; Ed Tegland, '61, and Warren Wolfe, '65, Denver Processing Center, Denver; Joong

Chun, '66, Seismograph Service Corp, Tulsa; Jerry Davis, '64, '70, '72, Shell Oil, New Orleans; Claudio Venturini, '66, Western Geophysical Co., Milan, Italy; Gerry Rupert, '64, UMR, Rolla; Dick Hunt, consultant, Carbondale Colorado; Ed Ballantyne, '60, Amoco

Minerals, Denver; Afif Saad, '62, Gulf Oil, Pittsburgh; Joel Jurgens, '60, Hrubetz Oil Co., Denver; and Jim Fowler, '72, Xadar Exploration, Springfield, Va.

Pacific Northwest Section Alumni Picnic

Our annual potluck picnic was held at the Wright's home on Aug. 13. All present had an enjoyable time. The food was great. Some of us went on a float trip down the Snoqualmie River. Others caught up on what people had been doing during the last six months and played croquet and badminton. Stephen Wright gave airplane rides in his Cessna 182 Skylane.

We decided to hold a December dance and spring potluck dinner/business meeting this year.

Those attending the picnic were: Bill and Betty Coehy, Mike Woods, Scott Huddleston, Stephen, '68, Susan, '69, Paul and John Wright; Erik, '77, Robin, Laura and Rebecca Tilman; Ray Lasmanis, '63; Willard and Bettjeanne, '49 Puffett; John, '59 and Betty Adams; Paul, '59 and Loucretia Barnard; David Winter, '78 and Linda Kommers; Itsu Arimura, '59; Bob Yerbury, '77.

San Diego Section

Frank Mackaman, executive vice president of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association, and his wife Nancy visited with us at the Oct. 15 meeting of the San Diego Section, which was held at the Officers Club on the Marine Corps Recruit Depot. Frank presented a slide show of the developments on the campus.

Those who attended were from many parts of San Diego County. Elizabeth and Phil Boyer, '28, Encinitas; Nila and Robert N. Brown, '50, San Diego; H.R. Fletcher, '53, San Diego; Ethel and Al Jurvic, '33, San Diego; Marilyn and Al

Keevil, '43, Pacific Beach; Sally and Steve Nichols, '68, San Diego; Miriam and George Nations, '36, Apple Valley;

Cynthia and Danny Powers, '73, Ocean-side; E.T. Regenhardt, '30, El Cajon; Bob Riggs, '77, San Diego; Barbara and James Webster, '50, Escondido.

We are indebted to Al Jurvic for hosting the event at the "O" Club and also to John Englund and his associates at Kaiser Steel's Eagle Mountain for the Section telephone directory. Copies were made available at the meeting which served to draw us closer together.

SPE Annual Meeting - San Francisco

MSM-UMR alumni gathered at the Hyatt Embarcadero Hotel in San Francisco during the Society of Petroleum Engineers' annual technical conference on Oct. 6. Although the hors d'oeuvres were rapidly depleted, a good time was had by an exceptionally large crowd. Unfortunately, the guest list was (1) partially hidden under a barrage of plates and other necessary accessories to a successful party, and (2) was left under the austere guidance of Ken Thompson of Denver who advocated a sign-up fee payable in advance, and as a result several alumni may not be noted. Those who finally found the list were: Jeff, '79, and Ann, '79, Smith; Rick, '81, and Lori Fuerman; Don R. Greenwalt, '57; Joe, '76, and Betty Martin; Maryann Chambers Fuchs, '79, Brad Aman, '79; Ernest Onyia, '78; Ary Tinnemeyer, '76; Ed H. Barsachs, '50; The irascible Ken,

'73, and Jenny (definitely a better half) Thompson; Robert Brennan, '77; Leon, '64, and Helen Kreisler; Larry, '73, and Lydia Schupbach; Mike, '76, and Ann McKee; Monte Deckerd, '76; Tim Hildenbrand, '80; Theresa Talty, '80;

Rodger, '79, and Debbie Thompson; Marilyn Smelcer, '80; John Knepler, '67; Jack, '72, and Liz Rose; Steve Ohnimus, '68, Matt Honarpour, '69, '70, '80; Jag

Ghole, '67, Barry, '81, and Kathy (Dill, '79) Sheldon; Steve, '74, '75, and Betty Suellentrop; Herb and Billie Harvey; Dave, '81, and Susan (Holley, '81) Gresko, Doug Hart, Sean Price, '77; Lenn, '68, '69, '70, and Cheryl Koederitz; David McCullough, '79; Jim, '70, and Nancy Horne; Jennie Adkins, '79; Jim Honefenger, '72; Bill, '50, '51, and Francis Collins.

Bay Area Section

The fall 1983 dinner was held at the Sea Wolf Restaurant on the waterfront in Oakland on Saturday, Oct. 15. Thirty-three alums and guests enjoyed an autumn sunset over San Francisco Bay and dined on Pacific red snapper or roast beef while seeing old friends and meeting new ones. The Hooks, Littlefields, Peacocks and Wells sailed up the Bay on the Littlefields' 28-foot Islander sloop, "Leprechaun," and arrived at the Sea Wolf dock in the proper frame of mind and spirit for the get together.

In attendance were: Jerry '58, and Kay Littlefield; Marianne Cochran, '50;

Tom Tanner, '74, and guest; Par, '50, and Mary Schoenky; Bob, '47, and Marnie Ray; Judson, '54, and Mrs. Leong; Charles, '28, and Mrs. Freeman; Jim, '67, and Peg Allmon; Frank, '38, and Gerry Goodrich; Bob Boschert, '58; John, '72, and Mrs. Chien; Steve Kambol, '75, and guest; Don, '72, and Mira Illian; Janet Hartley, '81; Glen Lipscomb, '81; Warren, '58, and Ellen Hooks; Jim '42, and Ruth Shaffer; Dennis, '70, and Barbara Wells; and Dave, '64, '66, '70, and Laurie Peacock.

SME Meeting - Salt Lake City

A small but well-fed group of Miners met in Salt Lake City during the Society of Mining Engineers of AIME meeting held in October. Don Warner, Dean of the School of Mines and Metallurgy, led the UMR contingent to the Hotel Utah where the reception was held. Alums were joined by both faculty and students making the reception a memorable experience for all.

Those attending included: Don Warner; Ernest Spokes; John J. Donnelly, '70; R. Lary Miller, '58; Greg Lang, '78; Norman Smith, '76; Bill Woods, '59; Bill Kay, '33; John Tyler, '76; Fran and Chuck Beasley; Gill Montgomery, '35; Bill Shepard, '51; Fred Myers, '79; Dale

H. Emling, '54; Joe Quinn, '49; Jack Burst, '43 & '47; Ken Fleck, '78; Michelle Cooper, '81; Roger Keller, '75; J.D. Crites, '49; Troy Harris; Karen Grawe; Rick and Ernie McMillan.

Football Miners Share 1983 Title

Nov. 12, 1983 is a day of football that will be remembered in UM-Rolla sports history.

Ron Hutchcraft had caught only four passes entering the final game of his sophomore season, but, his fifth catch was worth the wait.

Quarterback Chris Nisbet found the 6-1 speedster in the end zone with only 2:22 left to play, giving the Miners a 14-9 home victory over Northeast Missouri State and a share of the 1983 MIAA title with Central Missouri State.

The 38-yard touchdown pass came on fourth and 19, as Nisbet fired the ball through a 20 mile-an-hour wind. Hutchcraft's leaping catch gave UMR the victory and ended the Miner's season at 8-2 overall and 4-1 in conference play.

"Hutchcraft has the ability to be a tremendous receiver," a jubilant head coach Charlie Finley said after the game. He certainly has the speed—all he needs is experience and confidence."

The game-winning catch no doubt did a great deal towards providing him with both, as Hutchcraft's UMR teammates carried him off the field on their shoulders during a wild celebration. A track performer with 9.7 speed in the 100-yard dash, he caught touchdown passes of 89 and 94 yards earlier this season in a junior varsity game.

The Miners fell behind 3-0 early in the game, as Northeast Missouri's Brad Schrader connected on a 33-yard field goal in the first quarter. UMR went back on top with only 10 seconds left in the half, scoring from three yards out. A scoreless third quarter followed, setting the stage for UMR's dramatic come-have only seven seniors on the team, so I'm very optimistic about next season."

Finley has coached the Miners to either a first- or second-place finish in six of the last seven seasons. The win was his 70th career victory in 12 seasons at UMR.

UMR entered the game ranked 14th in the NCAA Division II, its highest ranking since the 10-0 team of 1980 finished 10th in that season's final poll.

Randy Shed led all rushers with 113 yards and finished the year with a 95.6 yards-per-game average, good enough to put him first in the MIAA and among the leaders nationally.

"Shed did it all for us," Finley said. "He led the league in rushing and kick-off returns and was a leader on and off the field."

"We may have had only seven seniors on this team, but I can't say enough about the way they led our club during the season. They all did a great job."

Other Miners playing their final collegiate game were Scott Teter, Steve Davis, Bill Bohnhoff, Scott Stephens, Mel Parham and Nisbet.

"We won or shared the conference in 1977, 1980 and now this season. All three teams had one trait that was stronger than anything else," Finley said. "They never gave up."

Eight Gridders on MIAA First Team

Eight members of the 1983 co-champion University of Missouri-Rolla football Miners were honored with first-team berths on this year's MIAA All-Conference teams.

UM-Rolla head coach Charlie Finley, who guided the Miners to a 4-1 MIAA mark and an 8-2 overall record, earned Coach-of-the-Year honors by a vote of his peers.

Members of the first-team offense were tackle Jeff Heger, guard Eric Wiegand, and running back Randy Shed. Shed, who paced the MIAA in rushing with 95.6 yards-per-game, was edged out as the league's Most-Valuable-Player by Northeast Missouri quarterback Tom Hayes. Hayes won the award for the third straight season.

On defense, the Miners boasted first teamers in guard Bob Gorham, end John Frerking, linebacker Glenn Wilhelm and back Ken Zerkel. Frerking also was named as the league's first-team punter.

Second-team members for UMR were center Russ Pogue, fullback Mike Schafer, defensive end Rickie Caruthers, linebacker Steve Davis and defensive back Brian Bradley.

Honorable mention awards went to split end Mel Parham, tight end Scott Stephens, quarterback Chris Nisbet and noseguard Dan Goldner.

UM-Rolla graduates only seven seniors from a team that boasted the best overall record among MIAA members.

ahead 7-3 in the second stanza when Nisbet rambled 13 yards on a quarterback keeper.

Art Addison put Northeast Missouri

"I'm so proud of the way our team came back this season after struggling earlier in the year," Finley said. "We

Miner Kickers Log Winning Season

The 1983 season was a good one for both men and women's soccer at UMR, with each team recording +500 seasons and gaining post-season praise for key individuals.

The men finished the season 10-9-0, as Keith Vandersteen ended a super freshman season as the team's leading scorer. Vandersteen scored nine goals and added four assists for a team-high 22 points. He was followed by Jeff Smith's 15 points, Scott Jaskowiak's 13 points and ten each by John True and Mike Lane.

Goal-keeper Ben Birch ended the season with a 1.56 goals-against average, and produced three shutouts during his with a 10-5-0 record, with two of their losses coming in overtime. At one point

Two Soccer Miners All-MIAA

Two University of Missouri-Rolla Miners were honored with MIAA All-Conference soccer selection, in a vote of league coaches.

Kevin Keenoy was named to one of the back positions for pacing the Miner defense at that position after transferring to UM-Rolla from a junior college. Jeff Smith was selected as midfielder, serving as one of first season in a Miner uniform.

The Lady Miners ended the season the Miners' top scorers and leaders.

Team co-captain Bryan Dickerson gained honorable mention at a back spot.

John Guffey, who led Northeast Missouri to a tie for the MIAA title with University of Missouri-St. Louis, was named Coach-of-the-year. UMSL forward Lance Pollett was the league's Most-Valuable-Player.

in the season, the young squad was ranked nationally for the first time in UMR women's soccer history.

Janet Stones handled the bulk of the scoring duty, firing in 13 goals and adding two assists for 28 points. Susan Shrum was the other Miner in double figures with 14 points.

Goal-keeper Lisa Frumhoff had a goals-against average of .93, six shutouts and was named to the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America's All-West Region First Team.

"It was a fun season, and we have many returning players on each squad," said coach Paul McNally. "I think more and more people are beginning to take note of the soccer programs at UMR."

Hoop Miners Return Veteran Team

The 1983-84 University of Missouri-Rolla men's basketball team returns some talented veterans this season, giving head coach Billy Key plenty of reason for optimism.

Key enters his 19th season with the Miners, recording a 228-229 mark at UM-Rolla and a 336-278 record in 25 years of collegiate coaching.

With some talented newcomers added to some solid returnees, Key feels the Miners have a chance to be an improved team this season.

"We have a solid nucleus to build on," Key said of the upcoming season. "Curtis Gibson led the MIAA in scoring (20.5 points-per game) as a sophomore, and we feel he should again be one of the best players in the league this year."

Other help will come from a talented group of sophomores, who gained valuable playing experience last year.

"Dave Moellenhoff (6-8) will see a great deal of playing time at center, as will forwards Mark Zarr (6-6) and Kris Stange (6-7)," Key said. "These three really have some ability, and have improved since their freshman year."

Senior leadership on the team will be provided by guards Stan Shuemaker (6-0) and Todd Wentz (6-0) with forward John Pfannkuch (6-4) lending a hand on the boards.

John Collins (6-5) saw limited playing time as a freshman in 1982-83, but Key feels he may play a greater role this season. Also vying for playing time will be Stu O'Kraski (6-2), a guard who was red-shirted by the Miners last year.

Leading the corp of newcomers is Tyree Hall (6-6), a tremendous leader from Edison Community College in Florida. Hall will be looked upon to bolster the Miners on the boards. Kevin Graves (6-4), brings a good shooting touch from North Iowa Community College, while Dan Tappendorf (6-2) will try for playing time at guard. He played for Lake Land Junior College in Illinois during the 1981-82 season.

Three freshmen also grace the squad, with Wiley Buchanan (6-3), Mark Givens (6-4) and Jeff Mefford (6-4) battling for playing time.

How does Key view the new season?

"We should be stronger than we were last year," he said. "But with a much stronger non-league schedule, the 14-12 record we produced a year ago would be respectable."

Key knows the MIAA competition will be as tough as ever.

"Southeast Missouri has to be the favorite, but Central Missouri and Northwest Missouri will be very good this year as well," he predicted. "In fact, you know that no MIAA game should ever be taken lightly--this is simply a very tough basketball conference."

Some of UMR's top non-league competition includes the Bellarmine College Tournament against Bellarmine College, University of Arkansas-Little Rock and Mississippi College; a January meeting with Division I Arkansas State and a trip to Indiana State University-Evansville.

"It is a real challenge, but I feel we have some quality players," Key said. "Hopefully they can all mold together to give us a very competitive team."

Seven Back For Lady Miners

Seven letterwomen return from last year's squad, and Cathie Schulte is hopeful their experience will help the Lady Miners bounce back from last year's 7-16 record.

Leading the way will be 5-7 senior guard Laurie Behm, the team's leading returning scorer (9.3 ppg) and the fifth-leading free throw shooter in the NCAA Division II last year (83 percent). Also back will be 6-0 sophomore forward Terry Bond, 5-9 junior forward Cecilia Gutierrez, 5-8 senior forward Gail Halsey, 6-2 senior center Linda Hill, 5-8 junior forward Kim Murphy and 5-4 sophomore guard Kelly Stewart.

"We are going back to the basics in some practice sessions," Schulte said. "And we are trying to do the little things to perfection."

If the Miners have any one goal, it is to make a stronger showing in the MIAA.

"We failed to win a conference game last year and I certainly want to change," she said. "Some victories in the MIAA would be very gratifying, as the degree of talent is high."

If the Miners have any one strength, Schulte feels it lies in overall intensity.

"The players are working harder this season," she said. "They are in better condition, utilizing preseason running and weight programs."

Numbers may prove to be one of the team's problems, with only ten players on the 1983-84 squad.

"Even with that, we can do much better this season if we are more consistent on offense. It would be nice for certain people to assert themselves quickly so we could come up with a bona fide starting five.

"Last season this really never materialized over an extended period of time due to inconsistency and injury."

The Miner returnees will be bolstered by three newcomers to the squad. Susan Mullins and Sandra Vaughn come to the Miners from within the Missouri prep ranks, while Melissa Warfield brings her talents to UM-Rolla from Colorado.

"This is a good group of young ladies to work with," Schulte said. "I'm looking forward to the new season."

Swimmers Look To Nationals

UMR swimming coach Bob Pease is pretty blunt about the 1983-84 Miners.

"We have an excellent group this season, and I'll be pretty surprised if we do not make a strong showing at nationals," he said. "We have many quality people back, and some fine freshmen to build on as well."

The Miners finished ninth in the NCAA Division II last season, producing six All-Americans and their second-best finish ever. Three of those All-Americans are back this year, with at least one national qualifier in each stroke.

"We need for our top people to rise in their national rankings and get national cuts out of our second and third athletes," Pease said. "We have some lack of diving depth, but perhaps our freshmen can come through for us and give us a lift."

Some of the top Miners returnees this season are Chris Aria (backstroke), Scott Carney (butterfly), Derek Coon (breaststroke), Craig Erzen (breaststroke), Arthur Hovater (freestyle), Ed Krygier (backstroke), Joe Pericich (freestyle), Paul Pericich (backstroke), Jon Staley (diving), Mike Walsh (IM), David Wisdom (butterfly) and Mark Wuttig (freestyle).

Top newcomers include Danny Mattle (freestyle) and Martin Rodseth (freestyle). Rodseth, from Oslo, Norway, should give Bill Orr's varsity records in the freestyle races a great deal of challenge.

Pease enters his 15th season with the Miners. In addition to his swimming duties, he coaches the highly successful UMR Water Polo Club. He is also a member of the NCAA Swimming Committee.

The national competition is the main goal Pease stresses to his squad.

"That is where you always set your sights, and it continues to be a quest to see what improvement can be made through each athlete's experience," he said.

The NCAA Division II championships will be held March 7-10 in Hempstead, NY. NCAA Division I championships will be held March 21-24 in Cleveland, Ohio.

Cross Country Runners Fare Well

The UMR men and women's cross country teams each placed fifth in the 1983 MIAA Championships, held this fall in Rolla.

The Miner men finished with 109 points, far off the pace of Northeast Missouri's top finish of 43 points. Jim Bullard continued his fine season, recording the top Miner time and the sixth best finish out of a field of 40 runners.

Bullard's 25:44 was only 18 seconds off the best time of the day. Central Missouri's Rick Schmid won the event with a run of 25:25.8.

For the Lady Miners, their 141 point total fell off the pace of champion

Southeast Missouri's 32 points. Jill Cameron was again the top Miner finisher, placing 22nd out of a field of 39 runners. Her time was 20:51, while Southeast's Christine Ridenour won the event with a time of 17:49.5. Ridenour's time was only four seconds off the course record, even though the race was held on a very wet course in the rain.

The 1983 season was a successful one for Dewey Allgood's men harriers, as they won several key meets and were one of the most improved teams.

Sarah Preston's Lady Miners also recorded some impressive finishes as the fledgling program continued to grow.

James S. Anderson, '55 Curator University of Missouri

James S. Anderson, University of Missouri Curator from Springfield, could give lessons in time management.

Anderson not only runs Anderson Engineering, Inc., a consulting engineering firm in Springfield, he is active in numerous professional and civic organizations, in addition to his Board of Curators duties.

At his firm, he employs seven civil engineers (six of them graduates of the University of Missouri-Rolla, as is Anderson), a geologist, a biologist, and 12 engineering technologists as well as clerical assistants.

In his 25-plus national, state and local professional and civic organizations, he is serving or has served as an officer or chairman for more than a dozen of them. For instance, in the Missouri Society of Professional Engineers, Anderson has served as a committee chairman, director or officer (he's a past president) every year from 1964 to 1983. He is currently MSPE's chairman of the political action committee and serves on the membership committee of the National Society of Professional Engineers.

"I'm not sure there is any particular secret to being able to handle a busy schedule," Anderson said. "I concentrate on management and organization and, of course, I get up early.

"But the major component is the cooperation and assistance I receive from my wife. Dixie has always backed me—such as when I was president of the local engineering chapter in 1965 and she founded the auxiliary. She is a member of the board of directors of Anderson Engineering and travels with me attending all social functions and promoting the engineering field. In addition to taking care of me, she has found time to write a book which was published a couple years ago and is working on a second."

Anderson received his engineering education from the University of Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy (now UMR), earning his B.S. degree in civil engineering in 1955.

"One of my most vivid memories of the Rolla campus is an interview I had with V.A.C. Gevecker, a civil engineering professor who was serving as assistant dean at that time," Anderson recalled. "He told me that when I got out of school, I would most likely find myself in a position of some responsibility since I would then be an engineer. However, most of the people whose efforts I would be directing would probably be making more money than I did. He said to be patient, that the situation would right itself in time and eventually my education would pay off. He was exactly right."

Anderson's first job after leaving the Rolla campus was a year as a trainee and junior engineer for the St. Louis-San Francisco (Frisco) Railway Co. He spent the next nine years (with leave for military duty) as a designer, District 8-Survey & Plans, and engineer inspector, District 8-Construction, for the Missouri State Highway Department.

In 1965, he became associate with Wright & Associates, Inc., of Springfield and in 1969 he became president of the firm, later changing its name to Anderson Engineering, Inc. The firm offers the full spectrum of civil engineering services and is actively involved in major projects through all phases including municipal works, construction projects under grants or loans administered by federal agencies, direct contracts with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Veterans' Administration, state agencies, local governments, industry and private individuals. The work covers environmental, geotechnical and structural engineering, the fields of hydrogeology, inspection, foundations, materials, soils and surveying.

As one who hires engineers, Anderson has been particularly interested in the field of engineering education. The interest was heightened when his son, James F. Anderson, chose to pursue an engineering degree at UM-Rolla in the early 1970s. (The younger Anderson, Class of 1978, is now with the Missouri Pacific Railroad in St. Louis.) Their daughter, April, is married and is a secretary with Anderson Engineering Inc.

"I learned even more about the scope and quality of today's engineering education, and higher education in general, when I recently served as chairman of the UM-Rolla Commission on Modification of Activities. I consider it valuable experience for service on the Board of Curators. We studied all facets of UMR—curriculum, laboratories, faculty salaries.

"I am the only engineer serving on the Board of Curators at this time, and I expect the addition of a professional engineer to that body reflects an emphasis in higher education on high technology. My general philosophy is fairly conservative. I do see a need for obtaining more appropriations to maintain qualified faculty and physical facilities and to keep the University operating in the black.

"I believe that the Board of Curators should let the public and our senators and representatives—both state and national—know the problems the University faces and our proposed solutions." Anderson recently returned from a trip to Washington, D.C., where he discussed professional engineering matters and higher education with governmental administrators.

1916

William Henry McCartney, last surviving member of the famed 1914 MSM football team, died Aug. 17, in Shreveport, La. In addition to football, Bill was active in Kappa Alpha, Quo Vadis and Theta Tau at MSM. A mining engineer, Bill spent his entire career with two companies—Palmer Corp. and William Barret Inc., both of Shreveport. Mrs. McCartney died just two weeks prior to Bill's death. The news was reported to the Alumni office by John H. Livingston, '39, through Lawrence Christensen, professor of history at UMR. For further details see Ark-La-Tex Section report in Alumni Section News.

1917

The U.S. Post Office has notified us of the death of Ralph Dale, Los Altos, Calif. At MSM he was a member of the Muckers and Lambda Chi Alpha (he was listed as No. 3). He received his degree in mining engineering but his career was spent as a highway engineer in Illinois and Minnesota.

1922

Harold F. Patterson is retired. He and Kathryn live at Whitcomb Tower, Apt. 709, 509 Ship St., St. Joseph, MI 49055.

1923

Elizabeth "Bid" Pence, lifetime member of the MSM-UMR Alumni Association, '74, and widow of Harry S. Pence, '23 recently moved to 701 S. Laclede Station Road, Apt. G-11, St. Louis, MO 63119.

1924

Paula Hudson, '73, sends us notice of the death of James Everett Jett on Sept. 19, which she received from his wife, Wilda Jett, 408 Sue St., Houston, TX 77009. Jett was a geophysicist who was a pioneer in the field of offshore oil exploration. He had lived in Texas for the past 43 years and was retired from the Pure Oil Company. Paula reports that although he had been unable to attend the MSM-UMR section functions in the Houston area for several years, he frequently sent in monetary contributions to support those functions and was a loyal Miner.

1926

Dryden Hodge, 216 Via Dante Drive, Arnold, MD 21012, writes: "Sorry to miss Homecoming. Rolla is just a bit too far since my wife, Dorothy, and I do not drive any great distances anymore. Would love to see all the changes in the campus since I left Rolla in January '26. My regards to Dr. Lovett, whom I remember well, and Prof. Frank Frame, if he is still there."

1931

G.M. Pace is retired and working part-time as a surveyor. He and Luvenia live at 7083 Paddison Road, Cincinnati, OH 45230.

1932

Homer Thompson is recovering from open heart surgery, but expects to attend Homecoming in October. He and Auttie live at 4101 Lochridge Road, N. Little Rock, AR 72116.

1933

Alfred Hesse would like to correct the information printed with his photo on page 3 of our June '83 issue. He writes: "I am not retired. I am still with R. Lavin and Sons Inc. with more than 33 years service and am at present metallurgical engineer and director of technical services. I was vice president and manager of Stemac Inc." Sorry, our mistake! Alfred and Emilie planned to visit Rolla again in October for Homecoming '83. They live at 11430 West 79th St., La Grange, IL 60525.

John W. Kenward, 326 S. Main St., (Box 154) Cambridge, IL 61238, writes: "Self-employed 1933-1955; county clerk of Henry County 1955-1970; retired in 1970 to golf, fish and travel. Wife, Inez, died Nov. 2, 1980."

George S. Richardson, M.D., is still practicing medicine in Roswell, N.M. He sends his regrets for missing Homecoming in October, but had to be in California at that time. His home address is 414 W. Alameda St., Roswell, NM 88201.

1934

Walter H. Bruening writes: "Helen and I are still enjoying retirement. We fish a lot at a camp we own at a nearby lake. We are both very active in church work and our health is good." Their home address is 613 Erie, Shreveport, LA 71106.

The death, on Sept. 4, of Jack Everett Gaston has been reported by his wife, Mildred L. Gaston, 2323 Wicklyn Road, Lancaster, PA 17601. Jack received his degree in metallurgical engineering, was a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Tau Beta Pi and lettered in tennis at MSM. He had been a technical consultant at Armstrong Research & Development Center in Lancaster, Pa.

1936

The death of Howard Edward Compton has been reported to the association by the electrical engineering department. Howard received his degree in electrical engineering and, while at MSM, was a member of ROTC and the Officers Club.

1938

The death of Albert A. Phillips, on July 27, has been reported by his sister, Mabel Phillips, '33, '47, 210 Walnut, Rolla, MO 65401. At MSM he had been active in ROTC, Theta Tau, the rifle team, ASME and Phi Kappa Phi. He had retired in 1977 after working 40 years as a mechanical engineer with the Oklahoma Natural Gas Co. in Tulsa. In addition to Mabel, he is survived by his wife, Myrtlemae, 1602 S. 165th West Ave., Sand Springs, OK 74063, a daughter, Joyce Daughtery of Florissant, Mo. and a son, George Phillips of Rawlins, Wyo., and five granddaughters.

Cecil W. Robertson writes: "Mrs. Robertson and I are in good health. Unable to attend Homecoming because of a death in our immediate family. All our best to everyone. Hope to see you for the 1988 reunion if not before." Cecil's home address is 115 Halcyon Drive, Southern Pines, NC 28387.

1939

Notice of the death of George O. Pitts, on April 3, 1981, has been sent to the Alumni Association by Laura Pitts Whitley, 4220 Huntington Road, SE, Huntsville, AL 35802. George earned his degree in mechanical engineering, was a member of ASME and participated in track while he was at MSM.

MSM-UMR Alumni Association, Harris Hall, UMR, Rolla, MO 65401-9990

This is the sixth year alumni have returned at Homecoming to participate in the "Alumni Band." Six years ago, only six band alumni were on hand to play along with the Marching Miners at halftime. This year 36 band alumni made the scene (there were 20 last year) and 31 were brave enough to take to the field on their own for the first time to form an "M" and play "Auld Lang Syne". They also joined the Miner Band during the coronation ceremonies. In addition to a Saturday morning practice, band alumni participated in general Homecoming activities and gathered for their own brunch on Sunday morning. Band director David Oakley would like to see double the number next year.
